Hitchin front row dominated against OMTs

Hitchin gamed their first win of the season at Old Merchant Taylors, thanks to a last minute penalty, converted by Ben Wiggins.

OMT's kicked off before Hitchin went on the attack, exerting pressure on the OMT's line, resulting in lock Sam Underwood touching down for Jack Peachey to add the extra points.

OMT's drew level as the Hitchin defence were caught out of place, to allow the OMT's right winger to run in for a converted try from his own half. After 35 minutes a dangerously high tackle on Hitchin's Ali Southward resulted in a red card for the OMT's fly half.

Nevertheless, the home side added a second try to lead 12-10 at half time.

Back in the home side's half, Hitchin ran the ball through the backs but failed to beat the defence, and it was OMTs who took a 2 point led with a penalty with just minutes to go. The Hitchin pack, however, continued to keep hopes alive, and with OMT's penalised in front of their posts, Wiggins stepped up to slot the ball through the posts for victory.

A great team spirit and good discipline throughout.
