Comet Sports Awards 2017/18

Congratulations to Hitchin Ladies and Mark Tidey on being shortlisted as finalists in the 2017-18 Comet Sports Awards!

The Ladies section won Team of the Year at last year's awards and were shortlisted again for this award. Mark Tidey was also honoured with his shortlist nomination in the Veteran Achievement award.

The Hitchin 1XV have endured a tough season – going out in the cup and facing a tough relegation battle. Though the success has not come on the pitch it certainly has come off it!

The playing numbers for the men's sides are on the up. Following a recent recruitment drive a number of new faces have been down to the club playing and training.

What most appeals to you about a
rugby day:

The promise of
a strong team
performance
where everybody
pulls their weight and shows the crowd what Hitchin Ladies are made of!

What are you willing to share about tour:

Maggie Alphonsi licked my face after she bailed on a funnel and sprayed beer all down me whilst I was dressed like Jet from Gladiators and she was dressed as a Gnome (spillage is lickage).

'I would like to thank our head
coach Dale Baines
and our new assistant coach
Clive Cramphorn
for their endless
passion, positivity
and expertise –
without them, our team really would not be in the place
it is today. Also,
thank you to the women's committee
for making my job
so easy!'
