

Owner

Osteofit Osteopathic Treatment Clinic

Currently holds this position

Sole Practitioner

Osteofit Osteopathic Treatment Clinic

September 1990 – Present (22 years 2 months)

20th year in Practice.

Practice opened 4th September 1990 as a sports injury clinic.

Treatments offered now include Osteopathic manipulation, exercise advice, soft tissue manipulation/massage and electrotherapy. A wealth of expertise in looking after patients physical health.

I am currently studying on a four year BSc (Hons) degree in Acupuncture and Traditional Chinese Medicine.

Sports Rehabilitation Lecturer

Oxford School of Osteopathy

August 1997 – July 1998 (1 year)

Part Time lecturer on sports injuries and rehabilitation techniques

Sports Therapy Lecturer

Barnfield College

Educational Institution; 501-1000 employees; Education Management industry

September 1993 – July 1997 (3 years 11 months)

Sports Therapy lecturer and tutor. Responsible for curriculum delivery, student guidance across full time and part time sports therapy courses. In addition elements of the courses were also written by myself and other members of the team as it was the first time sports therapy was a full-time under-graduate course